

Sports Performance 15

'THE SCIENCE OF SPORT AND FITNESS'

Unit IV Sports Psychology

MENTAL TRAINING

GOAL SETTING

PACKAGE

Noreen Baker BPE,BED. W.P. Wagner High School 2006

GOAL SETTING

"What do I want to strive for today?"

1.	An or objective you are trying to
2.	Goal setting is about mapping out your	to success.
3.	Goals give a
4.	Raise feeling of
5.	Become more
Key t	to goal setting:
Mot	ivation
6	motivated
7.	motivated	MARATHON
8.	motivated	OF HOP
	ivation – a belief or lrives you.
Com	ponents of motivation:
	a) – how strongly do you feel
	b) – is it for you? Fun, pe	ersonal best.
	c) – championships, tro	ophies, money.

Goal setting and performance:

9.	Goals direct and	•
10.	Goals regulate the amount of	put into a task.
11.	Motivates athletes to develop
	to reach the goa	ıl.
Туре	es of Goals:	COPYRIGHT CONTROL OF C
12.	Goals	FOTOSEARCH
	a. Relate toversus o	thers.
	b on winning/losing	5.
	c. Result oriented.
	dto control.
13.	Performance Goals a. Whole performance others.
	b. Specific end product of the performance Ie. Take only shots	e
	c. Relatively to	achieve.
14.	Process – Goals
	a. Specific the athlete will execute, before, during and after performance activity.Ie. What do I need to do to achieve a qualifying time?
	b goal, g	oal, physical goal.
	c. Relatively easy to

15.	Co	ollective (team) vs		Goals
	a.	Shouldto performance.	_		as both are important
16.	G	oal Setting Guidelines:
	a.	Know what you want to _
	b.	Set	_ term and		term goals
	c.	Know your		_•
	d.	Set	goals.
	e.	-	down your goa	ls.
	f.	Create goals that will performance.		to highe	er levels of

17. Be SMART or SMARTER when setting goals:

S be ______

M be Measurable

A be Adjustable

R be _____

T be _____based

E be Exciting and challenging

R be _____

